Dear Mr. McClanahan:

This is a final response to your 12 April 2008 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, which the office of Information and Privacy Coordinator received on 14 April 2008, for information regarding:

Internal Central Intelligence Agency ("CIA") documents and reports pertaining to guidelines for National Clandestine Service officers for the evaluation of the likelihood of success of recruiting agents from within terrorist organizations, including but not limited to any risk or probability analysis reports based on quantified variables used to determine the probability of successful recruitment efforts.

We processed your request in accordance with the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552, as amended, and the CIA Information Act, 50 U.S.C. § 431, as amended.

We did not locate any records responsive to your request.

Although our searches were thorough and diligent, and it is highly unlikely that repeating those searches would change the result, you nevertheless have the legal right to appeal the finding of no records responsive to your request. Should you choose to do so, you may address your appeal to the Agency Release Panel within 45 days from the date of this letter, in my care. Please explain the basis of your appeal.

We appreciate your patience while we were processing this request.

Sincerely,

Information and Privacy Coordinator
